Dear Mr. Drumgoole:

Thank you very much for your thoughtfulness in sending us a printed copy of House Bill 442. We have known the general provisions of this bill since it was introduced but have not had the printed text so that we could check the actual language.

We will watch this bill very closely in the legislature. It is, of course, a completely unworkable suggestion and I do not believe that the Massachusetts legislators will take it very seriously.

The provisions of the bill are reported in full in the February issue of The AMERICAN RIFLEMAN so that all NRA members may know that the proposal has been made.

Thanks again for your cooperation. Please keep in touch with me if anything further of this nature comes to your attention.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,

F. C. Daniel,

Dear Mr. Drumgoole:

Thank you for your letter of January 26th with reference to Massachusetts House Bill 467. Since writing us, you have undoubtedly received our legislative bulletin on this subject sent to all NRA members in Massachusetts.

I have heard from several members who attended the hearing on February 1st and they tell me that Mr. Hurwitz of Cohasset, Massachusetts, the petitioner for the Massachusetts Police Chiefs Association, admitted in the hearing an "error" in re-writing Section 131 of Chapter 140. The bill has been withdrawn and will be re-written to include all of the language that was previously in the law.

This seems to pretty well take care of House Bill 467 for the time being. I do wish it would be possible for the sportsmen of Massachusetts to present an amendment of their own to this section of the code that would make the issuing of these pistol licenses mandatory whenever the applicant has established that he is a proper person to be so licensed. At present, the law requires that the applicant establish this and yet provides that the licensing official "may" issue the license. This, I think, is illogical and could probably be changed if enough Massachusetts sportsmen were to get behind the move.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,

NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Dear Sir:

The NRA Members' Match may be fired on any course decided on by the Club Executive Committee, with either the service rifle or small bore. The only requirements are that at least ten members compete in the Match and that no man who has won the medal in previous years can win it a second time.

Report of the Match should be submitted, thus showing the course fired and the score of each competitor. The medal will be mailed to the Club secretary or direct to the winner, whichever may be requested when the report of firing is submitted.

The spring and summer program will be mailed to you within the next few days. It is a greatly enlarged program, embracing service rifle as well as small bore events, and we certainly hope that the Massachusetts Rifle Association may be represented on the list of competitors this year.

Very truly yours,

F. H. Phillips, Jr.,

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of the 14th, the five pistol targets which were furnished you for Match No. 23 are all that we furnish for this match. As many as ten men may shoot on the team, the five high scores to count for record but it is necessary for the club to either furnish the other five targets or else use pasters on the five that we sent you.

Trusting that this information will put you straight and regretting that this was not entirely clear, we are

FORMER NRA CLASS "B" AFFILIATED CLUBS.

Dear Mr. Club Secretary:

On December 1st, you were mailed a letter entitled IMPORTANT NOTICE explaining the new uniform method of NRA affiliation of Senior clubs.

Under the Class "B" plan members of your club who were individual members of the National Rifle Association had the same status and paid the same dues as the regular individual members who were not members of an affiliated club.

Under the new club plan they are entitled to the reduced annual membership fee of $3.00. However, our records do not distinguish the former class "B" members from our regular annual members. Therefore, the former "B" members will receive the regular renewal card that quotes the $4.00 renewal fee.

When these cards are brought to you by members of your club, please sign your name and the name of your club across the face of the card. At that time you can explain to your club member that he needs to pay only $3.00 for his renewal dues. The renewal card and the $3.00 dues may be forwarded to the NRA by either you or the member.

When the card bearing your signature is received at NRA, our records will be corrected so that future renewal notices to the member will show your club number, will quote the $3.00 rate and will provide a space for your signature.

Your cooperation during this transition period will be sincerely appreciated.

Cordially yours,

Dear Mr. Drumgoole:

In reply to your letter of August 20th, we are glad to send you the copies of the American Rifleman you requested.

In many clubs where the club secretary is an individual NRA member duplication of the Rifleman has been avoided. However, where club copies are desired for a club room, club library or for circulation among other club members we will send the extra club copy. You will also receive this club copy in the coming months.
